good about noon, Signal Service predictions were for local rains.

At one time during the early part of the morning the sky in the central part of the city was overeast, and light showers were falling, while down in the vicinty of Fourth and Townsend streets the sky was bright and clear, with not the slightest sign of rain.

There has been a steady fall of snow in the mountains. The temperature is rising and the snow is melting slightly. But no danger is feared from that quarter just now.

At Cascade the snow fell to the depth of eight feet, and the thermometer is now as low as 31 degrees.

From Alma, on the Santa Cruz division, to Cruz mountains, considerable trouble is being given to this company on account of the heavy rains. At Boulder creek, where they had the cloud-burst, which caused the loss of life and property, considerable trouble, also, exists. The officials at the Southern Pacific Company's office could not state definitely when that portion of the road would be in good condition. A force of men is at work repairing as speedily as possible.

The trouble existing between Cottonwood and Red Bluff, on the Shasta division of the South-ern Pacific, is reported to be very serious. Trains from here to Ogden are reported as run-Tacoma (Wash.), December 12th.—Gentlemen prominently connected with the Northern Pacific Railway at one time received a letter from the Chief Engineer of the Illinois Central Railway, to day, asking for the profiles and figures of the next best pass through the Cascade mountains to the one chosen by the Northern Pacific. Duplicate plans and profiles were forwarded to-night.

The Illinois Central Railway Company is one of the greatest and wealthiest corporations in America. The stock is mainly owned by English capitalists. In recent years they have shown a decided disposition to build another transcontinental railway across the United States, and with this end in view they have extended a line west from Chicago as far as Sioux Falls, in Dakota, their present western terminus. It is not likely the company will be content to let it remain there, but, as has been frequently intimated in railway circles, they contemplate an early invasion of the great northwestern field as far as the Pacific Ocean. SAN FRANCISCO, December 12th.—The storm, which was thought to have reached the climax yesterday, began again last evening with renewed vigor. Previous to this, however, the sky was clear and the air cool and bracing. People who left their homes early in the evening to do shopping and buy little trinkets and Christmas presents, remained in the stores after they had made their purchases, expecting the rain to abate, but such was not the case, for as it grew late the elements seemed to concentrate all their force. Oliver Ames, Andrew Carnegie, General Clinton B. Fiske and Collector Saltenstall, all guests of the Association.

After reading a letter of regret from James Russell Lowell, President Laine proceeded in a brief speech to introduce Governor Ames, who welcomed the guests of the Association.

President Lane then introduced ex-President Cleveland, who was greeted with long continuous applause and cheers. Cleveland dwelt on the injustice of fostering certain branches of trade at the expense or others by means of a protective tariff with the accompanying evils of the intimidation of labor by aggregated capital.

From this he turned to the question of the dangers which threaten the nation from the intimidation and corruption of votes. On this subject he said: "We need not stifle our scorn and contempt for the wretch who basely sells his vote, and who, for a bribe, betrays the trust of citizenship, and yet the thought will intrude itself that he but follows in the low and vulgar fashion of the example of those who proceed upon the theory that political action may be turned to private gain. But we know that when political selfishness is destroyed, our dangers will disappear, and though the way to its stronghold may be long and wearry, we will follow it fighting as we go. There will be no surrender nor will there be desertions from our ranks. This hope has risen like a star in the east, has fixed the gaze of our patriotic fellow countrymen, and everywhere in our busy marts of trade and on our farms, in our cities and in the homes of the poor, in our universities, and in our workshops, in our banking houses and in the ranks of inexorable toil, they greet us with an enthusiastic acclaim of the advent of ballot reform.

"Tremember the inauguration of another reform, and I have seen it grow and extend until it has become firmly established in our laws The Old Hands Will Go Back to Work-Trains Running.

Tacona, December 11th.—Trains are running on the Cascade Division of the Northera Pacific and the strike is virtually ended.

Assistant General Superintendent Dickinson arrived te-day. He will hold a conference with the strikers to-morrow. He says the men acted hastily. The rates paid are high enough, and would not be increased. New men will be put on in place of those who quit. No men will be discharged, but a number are quitting the Cascade Division entirely and thus reducing the force. The old men will go back to their old places, if they wish, and some new men hired to fill the vacancies. They can pasily get plenty places, if they with, and some new men hired to fill the vacancies. They can easily get plenty of new men to fill the vacancies. They want all the conductors who handle passengers and money to give bonds. They do not care about having conductors who handle no money give bonds, and the order issued by Superintendent Prowell will be changed so as not to include them.

Modesto, December 12th. - The conclusion of MODESTO, December 12th.—The conclusion of the catch-as-catch-can wrestling match, between C. A. Parker of Newman and W. A. Ross of Modesto, took place at the Modesto Athletic Club rooms to-night, under the auspices of the club. On Saturday evening last Ross won the first fall in twenty-five minutes, when the second bout lasted one hour and twenty-five minutes without a fall, hence the adjournment till to-night, when Parker won the two concluding falls, first in eleven minutes and second in sixteen minutes. teen minutes.

The club and referee are entitled to much praise for the fairness throughout the match. The contest was for a $500 purse and sixty per seven per cent. of their total vote; the New England States, but sixty-three per cent. of theirs. The negro has learned that the ballot-box, which promised him most, has yielded him least, and at last he realized that his best friends are his neighbors, with whose prosperity his own is bound up.

It would be well if Northern partisans would understand that the negro vote can never again control the South. If there be any human force which cannot be withstood, it is that of the banded intelligence and responsibility of a free community. Upon that the South relies, and not upon the cowardly menace of mask or shotgun. Force bills will not avail. The North may surrender its liberties to the Federal election law, but never again will a single State, North knows no 'South, no North, no East, no West, but endears with equal and patriotic love every foot of our soil, and every State of our Union.'

Andrew Carnegie was then introduced Prior to entering upon the discussion of his toric he referred to Cleveland as one whom history would declare had tried to do his duty, and who possess d the respect of the entire country, regardless of party. Carnegie then proceeded to a brief exposition of the wonderful progress made by this country during the past thirty years, in commerce, manutacturing and mining, declaring that in two industries she now leads the world, while her credit is first among nations.

PASO ROBLES, December 12th.—At a meeting of the Directors of the Central Milling Company, held in San Jose, Tuesday night, they decided that in putting up a flouring mill at this place, to make it large enough to supply the entire trade of the southern part of the State.

Carnegie was followed by Hon. W. L. Putnam late Democratic candidate for Gov Maine, who spoke briefly.

for the entire route, telegraphing ahead to make all secure.

Things went smoothly until Council Bluffs was reached, then Messrs, Coleman and Flynn were astonished to find a couple of very handsome young ladies in their parlor. As gallant young Californians they could not turn the ladies out of the places which they filled so comfortably and seemed to enjoy. They had a receipt for that particular parlor, and it was not their fault if the agent at Ogden had made a great mistake and given the young ladies a receipt for berths that were already taken.

When the conductor saw that both the ladies and gentlemen had receipts for the same places he refused to interiere, gallantly giving the preference to the ladies, and specially since they already occupied the places.

"We will sit up all night then," said Coleman, as he plumped himself down in the nearest seat.

"Not unless you pay for an upper and lower berth," replied the conductor.

There was no alternative, and the gentlemen paid for the berths. These they occupied until they reached Chicago, where they were met by the passenger agent of the road, who was exceedingly sorry, and did the apologetic act in the most abject style.

"I trust, gentlemen," said he, "that this will not bring us into trouble."

"That is just what it will do," replied the gentlemen, in chorus. "We will sue the company as soon as we reach. New York, for the extreme

The speaker believed it would be solved by the people most bound in honor to its solution. He asked: "First, parience. Out of this alone can come the perfect work. Second, confidence. In this alone can you judge fairly. Third, sympathy. In this you can help us. Fourth, give us your sons as hostages, that they may help to swell the Anglo-Saxon current untill it can carry without danger this black infusion. COLEMAN AND FLYNN.

New York, December 12th.—J. V. Coleman, President of the Iroquois Club, of San Francisco, and J. J. Flynn, ex-County Clerk of that city, are about to sue the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad Company for $10,000 damages. The cause of complaint against the railroad on which these gentlemen sue, is this: When Messrs. Coleman and Flynn left San Francisco, the former bound on a trip to see his mother in Paris and the latter for a general good time in Gotham, they secured a parlor on a sleeping car for the entire route, telegraphing ahead to make all secure.

THE LABOR QUESTION.

Proceedings of the American Federation Now in Session.

Now in Session.

Boston, December 12th.—The first hour of the session or the Federation of Labor this morning was occupied by routine business. The committee on the report of the President reported in favor of the proposition to appoint a committee of seven, to which all matters relating to the eight-hour movement be referred. The committee davered holding the next International Congress in the city in which the World's Fair will be held in 1892, and also urged the Federation to seek the rigid enforcement of the contract labor laws and the Chinese Exclusion Act, and the agitation of ballot reform until all the States have adopted the Australian system. The report was discussed and its recommendations were referred.

The report of the Committee on Organization recommended the Executive Council to try and bring about the amalganation of all dual organizations existing in any one trade. It was recommended that in the ease of unions affiliated with the Federation hereafter all conferences of the officers of the Federation with the Officers of the Knights of Labor, relating to trades union organization or mutual interchange and recognition of working cards cease. The officers of the Knights of Labor, relating to trades union organization or mutual interchange and recognition of working cards, cease. The first part was referred to a special committee, with instructions to prepare an address to the people of America, stating plainly the trades union position of the Federation, and the second part was adopted.

IMPORTANT ELECTION. Nine Officials Who Will Handle Millio

CHICAGO, December 12th.—The most important local election probably ever held in Chicago took place to-day. It was to decide the control of the newly created Board of nine Water-way Commissioners, the members of which are to have the raising and disbursing of funds estimated at from fifteen to thirty millions of dollars, to be used in carrying out the great Chicago drainage and ship canal project which will necessitate the eneployment for an indefinite period of from 10,000 to 15,000 men. Cumulative voting was permitted and Democrats and Republicans each nominated but five men, the aim being to secure a majority of the Board. A "Citizens" or independent ticket was afterwards put in the field with six names, three from the Democrats and three from the Republicans. of Money.

publicans. At midnight the returns from about half the precincts indicated the election of the six Independents, and that the three remaining places will fall to the Democrats. On this basis the Board, which promises to play an important part in Illinois polities, will stand, three straight Democrats, three Independents and three Independent-Republicans. WILL ORGANIZE TO-MORROW.

Influential Democratic Politicians and HELENA (Mont.), December 12th.—To-day an unusual excitement is noticeable around the room occupied by the Republican Senators in the Court-house. The Democratic Senators were holding a conference with the Republican Senators. After a long dispute and discussion, the Democratis said that on next Monday they would either be in their seats ready to organize the Senate, or would resign their positions. Parberry, the Democratic Senator from Meagher county, made a short address, in which he said that the position taken by the Democratic Senators was uncalled for, and that the step, although a bad one, had been forced upon them by high Democratic politicians.

Later information says that five of the six Democratic Senators have agreed to meet tomorrow with the Republicans and organize the Senate. Their Fine Work.

Condition in Ireland.

DETROIT (Mich.), December 12th.—Rev. Chas. D'Reilly, Treasurer of the National League, who recently, returned from an extended tour of Ireland was interviewed, and says: "The need of friends in the League were never more irgent. The Irish people are entirely in the ast stages of their agitation. Landlords recognize that their tenure is doomed. They are compelled to sell out, and have formed a syniciate to keep up rents, as that will determine the purchase price of the property.

"Tenants have formed a defense association to break down the rents all over Ireland. They break down the rents all over Ireland. THRILLING ACCIDENT. Two Passenger Cars Hanging Over a Fearful Abyss.

Winnipeg, December 12th.—A-citizen just arrived from the Pacific coast tells of a thrilling accident to the Canadian Pacific through express. A rail gave way at a point on the mountain side high above the Columbia river. The engine passed over sately, but the two coaches following swung about and toppled over the bank, which was almost perpendicular, and the cars would have tumbled several hundred feet into the river had it not been that the coupling twisted around and held the tremendous weight. There were the two cars, one with its load of passengers suspending over the abyss. The weight of the engine and the balance of the train prevented the suspended cars from drawing the whole train down. The suspense was dreadful. The frightened passengers were compelled to remain in their perilous position until the train hands built a platform around and underneath the hanging cars, enabling all to make their escape. The place where the accident occurred is considered the most dangerous in the mountains.

OTTAWA, December 12th.—The Government is undertaking the stupendous work of constructing a ship railroad to connect the St. Lawrence river with the Bay of Fundy, reducing the 500-mile trip around Nova Scotia to seventeen miles. It will be called "Chignut's Marine Transport Railway," and will cost over $6,000,-000. The track weight will be 110 pounds to the yard, and it will take only two locomotives to draw the car holding the vessels, and occupy a little over two hours' time. The tariff will be fifty cents per ton on the cargo, and twenty-five cents per ton on the vessel. Hydraulic jacks of immense power will be used to raise the vessel on the car, which can be accomplished in half an hour. It is specially applicable for purposes of war, the car being large enough to transport the largest war-ship.

THE STORM AND THE CITY.

Among our friends outside the city, Sacramento interests are now passing through what, for want of a more expressive term may be called a "scare." Among our own people who preserve their heads and do not allow fancy and fear to run away with reason, there is no alarm about the high waters. The best evidence of this is, that about the entire population has in the past two days visited the river front to see the rushing waters of the Sacramento river -but it was curiosity, not fear, that actuated them. For as a matter of fact we all know that there is absolutely nothing to fear from the high waters of the Sacramento. The stream flows parallel with the city front and along its levee, no where impinging upon it at an angle The levee is of immense thickness and very short-indeed for a good part of the distance it is as thick as the city is long, the top of the levee being below the high grade levels. On the east and north, levees quite as strong protect the city from any probable assault of the American river, which stream has not been high, and for the greater length of the levee has not come within sight of it, or risen over and the river.

Nevertheless, our friends abroad are are not even nervous. Telegrams come Union should fall upon the one hundredth much damage has been done by the flood, of the man who lead the colonists to the when we have had no flood and have suf- formation of the Union. fered no damage, and will not. These inquiries are, doubtless, in large part occasioned by the fact that along the water front water was seen upon the top of the levee in pools of greater or less extent, but nomination in this district. He will enter still far below the crown of the levee, which, at the point indicated, is from 100 other candidates, without reference to the to 120 feet in width. Along these swales, in which water draining from the slope of the street, escaping from beneath the platforms of the levee, and accumulating by rainfall, had gathered, the railway tracks of the Western Division of the Southern Pacific Company run, and the incoming and outgoing trains, therefore, for a short It Closes To-Morrow-Exhibition and Redistance, passed through pools of water. To those who did not stop to examine, and saw the city was inundated.

The moral effect of these pools of water in the swaies on the outer top of the front levee was, therefore, bad. It should be removed, and it can be done easily and speedily, and for all time, at no very confilled in, and for that matter the whole line of the outer top of the levee raised to the grade of Front street. For that purpose earth can be had from near points and hauled in by rail, and the labor of the chain-gang of the city and county applied to the necessary shoveling. These worthless fellows could not be better employed and the putting of them to hard labor might lessen the burden of the taxpayers, who have to support so large a proportion of the criminal class, in the winter time especially. It is as well to use these jailbirds in rounding up the levce some four or five feet higher as to engage them in crossing-sweeping and gutter-cleaning, as now. When the river runs down it would be well to continue this work of raising the crown of the whole levee system, and for that purpose a good deal of clayey material can easily be had from the river itself and at small cost.

Opposite this city the people of the town from floods. We ought to have authority over it, for if these people will not take care of their levees there must be legislation in the premises to insure the safety of those others who may suffer because of the neglect of the owners of the property. Levees around such valuable land should be raised, strengthened and otherwise im proved every year until they become abdutely impregnable. RECEDING RIVERS.

THE STREAMS REPORTED FALLING AT ALL POINTS.

Rapid Decline in the Sacramento-Broken Yolo Levees-The Situation North and South.

Thousands of people-men, women and children-visited the river front yesterday to view the teeming waters that were rushing past on their way to the ocean and incidentally to deluge farms and cattle ranches before reaching there. The river flowed. continued to rise slowly during the day, and at sundown had reached the extreme hight of 26 feet 11 inches, but then began to recede, and by 8 o'clock had fallen several inches. While the water was at its highest point the railroad tracks along the water front were several inches under water in some low places, but the running of trains was not interfered with.

There was great activity displayed along the levee below the city, and also on the Yolo side. The farmers on this side had done practically nothing to protect their valuable lands from inundation, and the City Trustees found it necessary to take a hand and spend a few dollars there in order to save the city the inconvenience of having back-water up against its south levee for several months to come.

In addition to what the Trustees did and Trustee McLaughlin to attend to that portion between Sutterville and the city.

Mr. Wolf worked like a Trojan all day, and went on duty again in the evening many at other points along the river. with the determination of fighting it out on the same line all night.

3, related to a Record Union reporter a beyond what was sent last night, story of sadness. He said the levees up The river here is now fourtee the river were broken on both sides, but the damage on the east side was greatest. Farms were flooded along the river, and horses and cattle in many places were standing in water several feet deep. In other places the narrow strips of levees that had withstood the rushing waters were covered with livestock. The scene from the deck of the steamer was one of desola-tion, the water spreading out and submerg-ing the country for miles on either side.

BREAKING AT ALL POINTS. At half-past 9 o'cleck last night Mr. Wolf returned to the city and reported that the river had fallen a foot at Oak Hall (Riverside House), and that all danger to the levee on this side was over. He had (Riverside House), and that all danger to the levee on this side was over. He had sent to town at 6 o'clock in the evening for men and implements, and Kent Bros. took down two wagon-loads, numbering thirry-three men. These were stationed along the levee for duty during the night, and Mr. Wolf concluded to return and take the

The workmen on the levee below the city were kept constantly supplied with all necessary material for strengthening weak places, and the utmost vigilance observed.

The Trustees denied a request made by Colonel McNasser to pump the water from the drainage canal into the river by means of the pine used on a former occasion when the drainage canal into the river by means of the pipe used on a former occasion when the river was low, as the opening of the pipe at the present stage of the water would simply let the water back into the canal, which would only add to the Colonel's troubles, instead of lessening them.

Supervisors Tebbets and Black visited the levee below the city yesterday, and authorized, on behalf of the county, the employment of men and purchase of material ployment of men and purchase of material protecting the embankment. The case of Mrs. Lauken, who resides on the Yolo side a short distance below the city, is a sad one. For two days and nights she had labored to protect the levee in front of her place, and yesterday had to see it 1 vanish. A gentleman who passed there yesterday said she was still laboring heroyesterday said she was still laboring hero-ically, almost up to her waist in water, but all her efforts were in vain.

David Lubin offered 12½ cents for each bag of earth placed, within fifteen minutes, on a certain weak spot in the levee near Sutterville yesterday. Some of the men present took hold and worked so lively that they earned a day's wages in the

PLANS FOR MAKING SPLENDID STREETS IN SACRAMENTO.

The Property-owners Will Have to Pay Only the Actual Cost of the Work Done.

It is conceded on all sides that an immense amount of money has been wasted in the filling and grading of streets in this city in the past, and it is openly asserted There is eleven feet of snow at the Sum-mit, eight feet at Cascade, six and a half that property owners have been fleeced by a ring of contractors. > Mr. Ray says that his plan is to grade and put in first-class order all of the streets from B to R and from the water front to owners pledges to proceed to the grading of the streets, guaranteeing that the cost such grading shall be less than one-half the price now paid. The company will be able to fulfill its part of the agreement in the following manner: Mr. Ray has the assurance from Mayor Gregory that the city will furnish the company with broken granite at one dollar per ton. This granite will be crushed by the power at the Water-> load when hauling is fair. The plan is to use coarse broken granite for filling in low places in grading, which will act as a sub-drain. A foot of dirt will be put over this and then ten inches of finely crushed granite. Over this will be a layer of sediment, intermixed with a little cement. When this is well watered and packed with a heavy roller it will make a magnificent street. Where it is desired, the top layer can be of bituminous rock and asphaltum, which will make a still finer street. Mr. Rav also proposes to do away with the cobble gutters and put in basal blocks to make a smooth surface, making the curbings of cement.

It is proposed to do all of the work posfirst at a point a mile and a half below that town; the next at Dr. Soyder's ranch, two and one-half miles down; the next at Megowan's place, three miles down, and the next at Buckman & Carragher's place, a few miles below there.

CHRISTMAS.

Christmas Shopping.

Christmas shopping—the most puzzling, the most delightful of the year. It's neat trickery this fitting of gifts to all sorts of people. Of course the children come first-the most fastidious of all recipients, perhaps, these to-day children! Certainly a windowful of rag dolls would meet with sorry favor with our little women customers. Nothing could convince them that grandma would have played so contentedly with one had she ever seen a real French doll, with great speaking eyes and masses of golden hair. We do not think so either, and there is no reason why every tot in town should not have something better than a rag doll.

They come—a regiment of dolls—right here, tripping down over the dollar mark; down, down to wee little bisque and china babies at five cents. First, the grand lady in silk and satin and a regal air, who values herself at $5. Some of her smaller sisters at $3 50, $3, $2 50 and $2. One of the most taking dolls is eighteen inches high, with a smiling face and a row of tiny teeth. She is neatly shod in patent leather and black stockings and is ready to be gowned; $1 25. A little bright-eyed bisque doll, fifteen inches long, 65 cents; another, with kid body, shoes, stockings and lace cap, 50 cents. Light-haired bisque doll, with kid-jointed body, 35 cents.

There are some queer Sandwich Islanders, dressed, at 25, 50 and 90 cents. One of the cutest is a woolyheaded Topsy, with mischievous eyes, at 90 cents. Doll shoes, 10 and 20 cents; doll stockings, 10 cents; doll caps of muslin, 15 cents. But ask for anything in dolldom and we will help you out.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Brought Up by Butterworth. Washington, December 12th.—In the House, Butterworth brought up the famous of hio ballothox contract, which figured so conspicuously in the last campaign, by offering a resolution reciting that of the persons whose names appear on said paper all except one were at the time of said publication and, except S. S. Cox, deceased, are still members of the House and Senate, and that a committee of five be appointed to investigate. The resolution further said that if the contract were genuine the signers were unfit to sit in Congress. The resolution was adopted, and the report of the Silcott Committee was presented to the House.

The report of the Silcott Committee gives a detailed statement of the assets and liabilities of the office December 5th. The shortage is stated at $70,705 %. It states that the committee has not yet made a sufficient investigation of the matter of discounts and notes. Many notes the committee believed were forged to cover a defalcation already existing, and says the committee cannot too severely condemn the manner in which the Sergeant-at-Arms conducted the affairs of his office.

Payson of Illinois immediately upon the conclusion of the reading of the report, offered a ashington, December 12th.—In the Houserworth brought up the famous Ohio ballo ffairs of his office.

Payson of Illinois immediately upon the conlusion of the reading of the report, offered a esolution authorizing the committee not only o examine the accounts, but to take charge of ll the assets, of the office until further orders: hat the House would receive any proposal rom Leedom for making good any deficiency, and also make a full report as to the effect of my deficiency.

and make a full report as to the effect of deficiency, protracted debate followed over this, reining the responsibility of the Sergeant atis, and whether he was acting as the agent he members of the Treasury Department, opinions expressed were conflicting, utelle of Maine offered a substitute for the fullon, directing the committee to report as is was adopted, as was also the one offered Hemphill of South Carolina directing Ser-at-at-Arms Holmes to arrange with the Heds. Ikinson of Louisiana announced the death is colleague, Gay, of the Third Louisiana ict, and as a mark of respect the House ad-led until Monday.

Washington, December 12th.—In the Senate alcott was excused from service on the Com-titude on Indian Affairs. Petitions were presented from various parishes of Louisiana in favor of the national election law introduced by Ingalis, Sherman and Evarts.

Among the bills introduced and referred were:
By Butler—For the emigration of persons of color from the Southern States.
By Gorman—For the International Exposition at the national capital in 1892.
By Stewart—For the free coinage of gold and silver, and the issue of coin certificates.
Gibson offered a resolution, (which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations), instructing the committee to inquire into the expediency and practicability of acquiring or se ting apart territory for the occupation of negro or colored citizens of the United States, and also to inquire how far and in what manner the Government of the United States can and ought equitably to aid the freedmen of the Usited States, and their families and descendants, to emigrate thereto and settle thereon, and establish a system of common school education. Ingalis offered a concurrent resolution (which went over) for a holiday recess for the two Houses from December 19th to January 6th.
Under resolutions offered by Aldrich and Platt, the following changes in the committees were agreed to:

Appointment of a select committee of fifteen

Platt, the following changes in the committees were agreed to:
Appointment of a select committee of fifteen Senators to be called the "Quadro Centennial Committee." The increase of the Committees on Immigration, Coast Defenses, Mines and Mining, and Public Buildings and Grounds, to nine members each; of the Committee on Indian Depredations, seven members; of Committees of Postoffice and Post Roads, Territories, Public Lands, and Pensions, to ten members; and the continuance during the present session of a select Committee on Library, instructing that committee to inquire into the advisability of the erection in Washington of a memorial hall, at which shall be received and retained such statues and portraits of public men and eminent citizens of the United States, and such historical paintings and other works of art as may be provided by law.

After an executive session the Senate adjourned till Monday.

All female complaints quickly and permanently relieved.
Despondency and gloominess dispelled; lightheartedness and peace restored by the exercise of the soul powers.

TESTIMONIALS. I suffered intoferable anguish from melancholia, induced by sickness and financial disasters, which bordered on insanity, for many months. I had been driven to contemplate suicide as the only means of relief, and had resolved upon that, when I was impelled to call on Mrs. Marshall as a last hope. She restored me to my normal condition, both physically and mentally, and raised me to a higher and better understanding of the true spiritual existence.

For twenty years I had heart disease; was told by the best physicians that I could live but a few weeks. I called on Mrs. Marshall, who gave immediate relief and cured me in ten treatments. I was then examined and pronounced perfectly well. A year has passed, and I am still in good health. J. C. PRESTON, Pasadena, Cal.

Pasadena, Cal.

For sixteen years I was afflicted with indigestion and constipation, being so bad as to have convulsions frequently. Doctors gave no relief—they just kept me alive. At last, being completely discouraged and hearing of Mrs. Marshall's success, I decided to try her, although having little faith, because I had tried everything else. I was perfectly cured, and am to-day a well and happy woman.
